The secretary of state yester-day, on receipt of the dispatch announcing the wholesale execution at Senting de Cuba, telegraphed to Consul General Hallot at Havanna, to instruct the vice consul at that point to inquire into the matter, and earnestly protest against the haste of the trial in the face of orders of the Spanish government, for delay until a full examination could be made into the facts attending the capture of the Virginius. Hell replied that the vice consul had already loudly protested against the proceeding, but that his acofficials. All avenues of communication being closed against him, the telegraph line between Santiago and Havana being interrupted, he was unable to telegraph to Kingston to make inquiry relative to the Virginius, and there was nothing left to him but the slow process of mails, and this mode of communication was of no advantage under the circumstances. Immediately opon receipt of Consul Gen. Hall's dispatch, Secretary Fish instructed Min-ister Sickles to enter with Spanish governmen a strong protest againt the proceeding at Santiago, charactering them as an outrage upon civilization and humanity and an insult to American government Gen. Sickles has replied that he has had an interview with the minister for foreign affairs and in accordance with his instructions and further states that the Spanish government is duly impressed with a sonse of its responsibility, and had promised to act in such a manner as would show its disapprobation of the proceeding at Santlago and at the same time its friendship for this government.
